 COUNTY OF ROBERTS) JUDICIAL CIRCUIT

John Lee Feather,

Petitioner FINDINGS OF FACT

vs

AND

The State of South Dakota, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW
 Respondent

There having been filed in this Court by John Lee Feather, the petitioner, a Petition for a post-conviction hearing and the States Attorney having duly answered as provided by law; the above entitled matter come on for hearing before the Court in the Couraroom, in the Courthouse, in the City of Sisseton, County of Roberts and State of South Dakota, on the 26th day of September, 1972; the petitioner appearing by his Attorney, L. R. Gustafson, and the State of South Dakota appearing by Wallace R. Brantseg, States Attorney of Roberts County, South Dakota; and the Court having heard and considered all of the evidence introduced by said petitioner and no evidence having been offered by the Respondent; and the Court being fully apprised in the premises, now makes and enters the following:

FINDINGS OF FACT

I

That the petitioner, John Lee Feather, is an unemancipated American Indian, being enrolled as a member of the Sisseton-Wahpeton Sioux Tribe.

II

That he is presently a prisoner, incarcerated in the State Penitentiary at Sioux Falls, under a Six (6) year sentence imposed on December 9, 1971, by the Honorable Sigurd Anderson, Judge of the Circuit Court of the Fifth Judicial Circuit of South Dakota, on a plea of guilty at Sisseton, Roberts County, South Dakota, to the charge of First Degree Robbery.

III

That the robbery was committed within the County of Roberts, State of South Dakota, within the exterior boundaries of the Sisseton-Wahpeton Reservation. That the particular land upon which the alleged crime was committed was not Indian trust land but was land that had been deeded to a non-Indian, still within the limits of the reservation.

IV

That the land upon which the robbery was committed was non-Indian, patented land, which the Sisseton-Wahpeton bands of the Dakota Sioux Indians had sold or relinquished to the United States under the terms of the agreement which was ratified by Congress in 1891.

V

That in sections surrounding this particular land upon which the robbery was committed there is land that remains unpatented Indian Land or Indian trust land within the Sisseton-Wahpeton Sioux Lake Traverse Reservation.

VI

That lots or tracts of non-Indian patented or deeded land and lots and tracts of unpatented Indian trust land are interspersed in a crazy-quilt pattern over the entire area within the boundaries of the said Reservation as by Treaty defined in 1867.

From the foregoing Findings of Fact, the Court now makes and enters the following:

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

I

That the State Court had jurisdiction of the petitioner for this patented land was not within Indian country.

Let Judgment be entered accordingly.

Dated this 26th day of September, 1972.

CIV 72-1030
PETITION

Don R. Erickson, Warden of the South Dakota State Penitentiary,
Defendant

TO THE HONORABLE AXEL J. BECK, OF THE
UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DIS-TRICT OF SOUTH DAKOTA, NORTHERN DIVISION:

I

That your petitioner is now imprisoned and restrained of his liberty in the South Dakota State Penitentiary in the City of Sioux Falls, County of Minnehaha and State of South Dakota, in the custody of Don R. Erickson, Warden of said Penitentiary; that the said prison is a state prison of the State of South Dakota under the jurisdiction of the State of South Dakota and its officers.

II

That the cause or pretense of such imprisonment or restraint is that your petitioner on or about the 9th day of

APPENDIX

December, 1971, was sentenced by the Honorable Sigurd Anderson, Judge presiding of the Fifth Judicial Circuit of Roberts County, South Dakota, for the crime of First Degree Robbery.

III

That the alleged crime was committed within the exterior boundaries of the Sisseton-Wahpeton Indian Reservation as was set apart for the tribe as a permanent reservation under the Treaty with the Sisseton-Wahpeton Bands of the Sioux Indians in 1867.

IV

That the land upon which the alleged crime was committed, which is one of the enumerated crimes pursuant to 18 U.S.C.A. 1153, was not Indian trust land that had been deeded to a non-Indian; that the land was still within the exterior boundaries of the Sisseton-Wahpeton Indian Reservation and within Indian country as defined by 18 U.S.C.A. 1151.

V

That your petitioner is an unemancipated American Indian, enrolled as a member of the Sisseton-Wahpeton Sioux Tribe.

VI

That your petitioner was sentenced by the Circuit Court Judge of Roberts County, South Dakota, for the alleged violation of a State offense for Six (6) years in the State Penitentiary and is presently serving the term as imposed.

VII

That the State of South Dakota had no jurisdiction over the Defendant, he being an Indian, where the alleged crime was committed within the Sisseton-Wahpeton Indian Reservation, even if the particular land had been deeded to a non-Indian prior to the alleged offense having been committed.

VIII

That the ground where the alleged offense was committed is within Indian country as defined by 18 U.S.C.A. 1151, and that the State had no jurisdiction of the petitioner thereon.

IX

That there was filed a Petition for Post-Conviction Hearing by the petitioner herein with the Circuit Court of Roberts County, South Dakota, and a hearing was had thereon on the 26th day of September, 1972, the Honorable Philo Hall, Judge presiding, and attached hereto is a copy of the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law dated the 26th day of September, 1972, together with a copy of the Judgment on the 26th day of September, and a copy of the Denial of Application for Certificate of Probable Cause for Appeal dated the 27th day of September, 1972, by Judge Hall.

X

Also attached hereto is a copy of the Order Denying Certificate of Probable Cause for Appeal as denied by all of the members of the South Dakota Supreme Court, signed by the presiding Judge, and dated the 20th day of October, 1972.

XI

That your petitioner has exhausted all of the state remedies at this time to the State of South Dakota and to all the Courts therein.

XII

That your petitioner being an enrolled member of the Sisseton Sioux Tribe states that he is without funds, that he is indigent and unable to pay fees for the services of an attorney to represent him in the matters which he wishes to bring before this Court or pay for the filing of this writ.

XIII

That L. R. Gustafson, an Attorney at Law, of Britton, South Dakota, has represented your petitioner in the Post-Conviction hearings had in Roberts County, South Dakota.

XIV

That no previous application has been made for a Writ herein prayed for.

Wherefore your petitioner prays that this Court will appoint as counsel L. R. Gustafson, or another suitable counsel, for him and pay for said counsel as provided by the laws of the United States and pursuant to Order of the Court, and order this petition and subsequent proceedings without cost to petitioner, and to issue a Writ of Habeas Corpus addressed to Don R. Erickson, Warden of the South Dakota State Penitentiary, ordering and directing him to have the body of the petitioner forthwith before the Court, and at that time that the petitioner be discharged from further custody.

He further asks that the Court release him on his own recognizance pending the hearing on this petition and that the Court set a time and a place for the hearing on this petition and prescribe the notice to be given, and that the Plaintiff's conviction for First Degree Robbery be declared void and his sentence based thereon be set aside, and that he be released from all restraint imposed thereby, and for such other and further relief as may be deemed equitable and just.

Defendant-Appellee.

PETITION FOR REHEARING

Pursuant to Rule 35(a) and Rule 40 of the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure, the Attorney General of South Dakota representing the Warden of the State Penitentiary petitions for a rehearing in Banc from the decision entered by this Court in the above entitled cases on December 7, 1973.

Rule 35(a) of the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure provides that a majority of the Circuit Judges of this Court in regular active service may order that an appeal be reheard:

- (1) When consideration by the full court is necessary to secure or maintain uniformity of its decisions, or
- (2) When the proceeding involves a question of exceptional importance.

I. NECESSITY TO MAINTAIN UNIFORMITY OF DECISIONS

In 1967 in the case of Beardslee v. United States, 387 F. 2d 280, 287 (8th Cir.) Judge Blackmun, now a Justice of the United States Supreme Court, wrote:

Federal jurisdiction is not present, of course, even though an Indian may be the defendant, where the offense site was never reservation land or is on a disestablished portion of a reservation, however that disestablishment may have been effected. This is the obvious inferential holding of Seymour and is the direct holding in the following cases, among others: De Marrias v. South Dakota, 319 F.2d 845 (8 Cir. 1963), affirming 206 F. Supp. 549 (D.S.D. 1962); Ellis v. Page, 351 F.2d 250 (10 Cir. 1965); Toosigah v. United States, 186 F.2d 93, 97-98 (10 Cir. 1950); Bird in the Ground v. District Court, 239 F.Supp. 981, 983-984 (D.Mont. 1965). See United States v. La Plant, 200 F. 92, 93 (D.S.D. 1911). The Supreme Court of South Dakota has so ruled repeatedly. State v. Sauter, 48 S.D. 409, 205 N.W. 25, 28 (1925); Application of De Marrias, 77 S.D. 294, 91 N.W. 2d 480 (1958); State ex rel. Hollow Horn Bear v. Jameson, 77 S.D. 527, 95 N.W. 2d 181 (1959); State v. De Marrias, 79 S.D. 1, 107 N.W. 2d 255 (1961), cert. denied 368 U.S. 844, 82 S.Ct. 72, 7 L.Ed. 2d 42; Lafferty v. State ex rel. Jameson, 80 S.D. 411, 125 N.W. 2d 95 (1964); State v. Barnes, 81 S.D. 511, 137 N.W. 2d 683 (1965); State ex rel. Swift v. Erickson, S.D., 141 N.W. 2d 1 (1966).

At 287 F. 2d 280, 287 Judge Blackmun concluded that:

Seymour and Kills Plenty are distinguishable because they do not apply the definition of Indian country contained in §1151(c). Clause (c) came into the statute as the result of the holding in United States v. Pelican, 232 U. S. 442, 34 S.Ct. 396, 58 L.Ed. 676 (1942), namely that lands allotted to Indians remained within the definition of Indian country even though the rest of the reservation was opened to settlement. See Reviser's Note following 18 U.S.C.A. §1151 (1966), and 80th Congress House Report No. 304. Clause (c) is an addition to and not a limitation upon the definition of Indian country embraced in the preceding portions of §1151. We regard clause (c) as applying to allotted Indian lands in territory now open and not as something which restricts the plain meaning of clause (a)'s phrase "notwithstanding the issuance of any patent". Although this result tends to produce some checkerboarding in non-reservation land, it is temporary and lasts only until the Indian title is extinguished. The congressional purpose and intent seem to be clear. See State ex rel. Hollow Horn Bear v. Jameson, supra, pp. 184-185 of 95 N.W. 2d.

Writing for the United States Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit, after he cited Toosigah v. United States (1950), 186 F.2d 93, Chief Judge Murrah also distinguished Seymour v. Superintendent, 368 U.S. 351, 82 S.Ct. 424, 7 L.Ed. 2d 346, and decided:

The question is sharply drawn and simply put by the state as to whether at the time of the alleged offense the Cheyenne and Arapahoe reservation had been disestablished and was non-existent. If not, exclusive jurisdiction was in the United States, the state court lacked jurisdiction, and the writ should issue. We agree with the state and trial courts.

Toosigah v. United States, supra, involved an offense defined in §1153 on what was originally the duly established Comanche, Kiowa and Apache reservation. Conversely to our facts, the petitioner there had been charged, tried and convicted in the federal court. We issued the writ and discharged the petitioner because we were ultimately of the view that the reservation had been completely disestablished by the Treaty of October 21, 1892 (ratified June 6, 1900), 31 Stat. 676, by the terms of which the tribes occupying the reservation did "cede, convey, transfer, relinquish (sic) and surrender, forever and absolutely, without any reservation whatever, express or implied, all their claim, title, and interest, of every kind and character, in and to the lands embraced" within the reservation. Here the Cheyenne and Arapahoe Treaty of October, 1890 (ratified in 1891), 26 Stat. 1022, contains indistinguishably similar language, and the Toosigah case undoubtedly controls the jurisdictional question in this case unless it has been overruled sub silentio in Seymour v. Superintendent, 368 U.S. 351, 82 S.Ct. 424, 7 L.Ed. 2d 346. The petitioner relies on Seymour as applicable and controlling.

The Comanche, Kiowa and Apache Treaty in Toosigah and the Cheyenne and Arapahoe Treaty involved here were negotiated treaties or agreements between the government and the Indian tribes by which in consideration of the payment of money and allotments in severalty the tribes did "cede, convey, transfer, relinquish and surrender, forever and absolutely, without any reservation", all their claim in and to the lands embraced within the designated reservation. While the words of alienation employed in the treaties do not formally disestablish the reservations, we think they have the unequivocal effect of doing so. In treaty parlance they are as appropriate to disestablish the reservations as the Congressional words "vacate and restore" employed in the 1892 Act to disestablish a portion of the Colville reservation. And, the critical language is textually and contextually different from that employed in the 1906 Act to authorize the Secretary of Interior to "sell or dispose of unallocated lands in the diminished Colville Indian reservation". It is one thing to open an Indian reservation to mineral exploitation, allotment to Indians, and non-Indian homesteaders by Congressional enactment as in Seymour. It is quite another to agree by treaty to cede and relinquish all claim, title and interest in the lands within the limits of a reservation.

As part consideration for the "cession of territory and relinquishment of title, claim, and interest" in the lands within the reservation, the government paid the Indians $1,500,000, $1,000,000 of which was retained in the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the Indians. The $500,000 was to be distributed to the Indians for their immediate use and benefit. The treaty evinces a manifest purpose to dissolve tribal government and assimilate the Indian allottees in the community in which they lived as citizens and owners of land with a grubstake to enable them to compete on an equal footing with their non-Indian neighbors.

II. QUESTIONS OF EXCEPTIONAL IMPORTANCE

The impact that the decision of this Court in the above entitled case will have on the non-Indian people who inhabit portions of the counties in South Dakota embraced by the Sisseton-Wahpeton (Lake Traverse) Reservation is illustrated by the following statistics:

County	Total Population	Indian Population
Marshall	5,965	138
Day	8,713	292
Grant	9,005	17
Roberts	11,678	1,567
Codington	19,140	73
TOTAL	54,501	2,087
